Notes

Pick Six Carryover--$63,809. . . Santa Anita enters closing weekend on Saturday with two graded stakes races. The $150,000 Santa Barbara Handicap for fillies and mares at 1 1/4 mile and the $100,000 San Simeon Handicap for older horses at about 6 1/2 furlongs, both races on the turf. Fan Appreciation Day is Saturday, April 16 with a variety of items to select from, including chairs, hats, shirts, mugs and aprons and more. . . Closing day's feature race is the traditional farewell race at Santa Anita, the Grade II San Juan Capistrano Handicap for older horses at about 1 3/4 miles on turf. . . Following the 10 race card on Sunday, Santa Anita and City of Hope will host the unique cancer walk "On Track to Beat Cancer." Fans are invited to join jockeys, trainers and celebrities in a quarter mile walk down the homestretch that begins with a walk through Santa Anita's starting gate. Santa Anita's infield area will also offer fans live bands, family fun events, food trucks and VIP buffet tents. For more information on how to participate, fans are encouraged to visit www.santaanita.com. . . Veteran trainer Lou Carno passed away earlier this morning at the age of 90. Known on the backstretches of Chicago and California as "the Silver Fox," Carno was best known as the trainer of Victory Beauty, a hard hitting gelding who won at Santa Anita at age 13 in 1969.
