Notes

FEEL GOOD STORY: Congrats to jockey Alex Bisono, who escaped injury in a spill Saturday, as he came back to win back to back races for trainer Gary Stute; the sixth race aboard Tiz Dynamic, who paid $16.40 and is owned by by B. Wayne Hughes' Spendthrift Farm, and the seventh with Kendall Mann's Arresting Officer. Here's hoping Gary's father, trainer Mel Stute, who returned home Sunday for the first time in two weeks following a fall in West L.A., had them both to win...Corey Nakatani, who was involved in the same spill as Bisono on Saturday, was off mounts Sunday, but hopes to ride Monday...Congrats to jockey Martin Garcia, who tripled on Sunday...Fans attending on New Year's Eve, Monday, will be treated to Two dollar beers, sodas & hot dogs...First post time on Monday & Tuesday is 12:30 p.m...Great to see Humberto Ascanio, a 30-plus year assistant to the late Bobby Frankel, in the winner's circle to present the Grade III Robert J. Frankel trophy. Ascanio, who was forced to retire as a trainer in his own right following a stroke in December of 2011, was accompanied by his wife and family on Sunday.
