Notes

Jay Privman, National Correspondent for Daily Racing Form, will host the Racing Form's Saturday handicapping seminar, beginning at 11:15 a.m. in the East Paddock Gardens. Privman's special guest will be syndicated handicapper Bob Ike, who is also co-host of the "Thoroughbred Los Angeles" radio show, heard Saturday and Sunday mornings from 8-9 a.m. on KLAAs, AM 830. Also joining the seminar for a brief visit will be long-time public handicapper Jerry Antonucci, who retired last year, but who will be at Santa Anita on Saturday with a large group of family and friends, as he'll be feted by the track with a race named in his honor. For more than two decades, Antonucci was the previous host of the Saturday handicapping seminars at Santa Anita. . . California-bred millionaire gelding Lava Man, who banked $5,180,678 in his career, has settled into trainer Doug O'Neill's barn as a 10-year-old pony horse. . . Jockey agent Jim Pegram reported that jockey Martin Garcia has his working papers in order and he will be at Santa Anita on Saturday morning to work horses. Despite missing most of November and all of December, Garcia ended up ninth in the national standings for money-won, with more than $10 million in purse money.
