Notes

Former Phoenix Gold Cup winner Proud Cardenal won today's 6th race as an 11-year-old full horse. It is believed the Tricar Stables home-bred could be the only full horse of this vintage to win at Santa Anita. . . This coming week Santa Anita will be dark Monday through Wednesday. Racing resumes Thursday at 1 p.m. . . Seniors' Day is every Thursday during the meet. All seniors over 62 years of age will receive FREE General Admission. . . Santa Anita patrons can now become a part of the newest addition to Santa Anita's historic sports palace, the luxury suite experience. The suite includes the following: spacious outdoor accommodations, exquisite catering by Santa Anita, corporate presentation opportunities, theater-style outdoor seating, multiple 32-inch televisions, concierge service and dedicated staff, an account representative to accommodate special and last minute requests, complimentary tote board welcome, a race named in your group's honor, paddock visits, and a winner's circle photo for the entire group. The suite hosts up to 30 people comfortably and standing room only tickets are available. Call 800-574-6401 for further information. . . Recommended viewing -- "No Ordinary Family,"
